With so much time spent at home over the past year, the good and bad parts of our spaces have been emphasized. There has undoubtedly been a surge in home redesign, and the pandemic has changed the way we shower and bathe — possibly forever. Since so many bedrooms have become home offices, bathrooms are where many of us retreat for a moment of silence and relaxation. And for those set on making it a self-care oasis, every detail matters — down to the towels.

In our humble opinion, a towel can make or break a relaxing bathing experience. And that's not even mentioning the transcendent effect of wrapping yourself up in the plush comfort of a vast, fluffy bath towel — it's enough to mentally transport you to the most luxurious of five-star hotels in the blink of an eye. Transform your entire shower experience with a new set of plush towels that feel great against skin and freshen up the look of your bathroom.
