FOR INSPIRATION.

Over four decades developing and manufacturing visual communication products led Bi-silque to a more challenging project: to create a high-end label, that embraces office products knowledge, to achieve both functionality and aesthetics.

From designers to product developers, project managers or marketers, ARCHYI. team is a committed and creative group of people, passionate about innovative and collaborative solutions, ready to deliver new office concepts and ideas, in a constantly changing work environment.

As a result, ARCHYI. shaped intelligent collections, with clean yet detailed and unique design, that will definitely change the way people look to and feel office products.

ARCHYI.

A brand for inspiring interior projects.

We develop efficient office solutions, through a thorough sustainable manufacturing process: future-proof visual communication, sound absorbing and collaborative furniture products that fit any environment or type of space.

ARCHYI. aims to demonstrate that you don't have to choose between efficiency and aesthetics when it comes to workspace solutions.

Moved by creativity, we focus on our goal of ensuring functionality, fine design, fluid & authentic communication, never forgetting to address our customers' needs, their expectations in the workspace and the ultimate market trends.

COLLABORATIVE WORKSPACE DESIGN SOLUTIONS

BOSCO

INSPIRATIONS

Inspired by Nature, Moved by Passion

Communication is intrinsic to all living things. It is essential to our existence, to the way we live and work together in harmony.

Nature is the best designer and the greatest teacher. By looking at it more attentively we can learn how to communicate in a fluid and natural way.

With a clear look and feel at the grasp of nature, its powerful, yet delicate details, shapes, colors and textures, we find the right design elements.

Nature shows us the beauty and strength we can find in silence. And silence can also be a stately form of communication.

Having present these impelling concepts, our collections are organized under three big guiding inspirations. We hope Scrita, Bosco and Muto will be able to successfully express the essence and history behind each product.

UNCONNECTED"

William Plomer

This is Scrita.

Persistent creativity will not be governed by the clock; exceptional ideas don't wait for appointments; compulsive inspiration knows no physical bounds. We see the potential for more effective communication all around us - developing dry-erase products for active collaboration that set your ideas free and enable you to passionately share them with the world, noting your ideas directly on your Furniture!

With discreet lines, and soft expression, this highly functional collection, stands out for its sense and simplicity - being elegant and simple in a way that enables it to fit perfectly different decoration styles and environments.

As homage to our roots, we decided to denominate all the products in this collection with names of the most picturesque Portuguese rivers, mountain ranges and cities.

BOSCO

INSPIRATION

“THERE IS NO BETTER DESIGNER THAN NATURE.”

Alexander McQueen

This is Bosco.

Elegant design influenced and inspired by the modern worker who seeks versatility, mobility, aesthetic and functionality. Created to support collaboration and encourage creativity, Bosco is the ideal choice to add character to any workspace based in the most recent interior design trends.

The Collection is composed by simple shapes and traditional materials, inspired in a handcrafted concept. The combination of superb wood details with other materials will distinctively add a natural yet modern feeling to your project.

Bosco was inspired by the Italian word for wood, forest, set of magnificent and majestic trees, since wood is the starting point, the support basis of our elements, assigning it both stability, natural character and beauty.

MUTO

INSPIRATION

“SILENCE IS A SOURCE OF GREAT STRENGTH”

Lao Tzu

This is Muto.

Improve style while eliminating distractions with our Muto collections. Today's modern work environment includes many open office spaces which create significant challenges in workspace noise and human capital management.

It is well studied that sound absorbent products in workspaces enhance concentration, productivity as well as both physical and psychological well-being. The inspiration for our collection is the word Muto, which is an Italian word that means “without uttering words or sounds, in a mute manner”. Serving acoustic and aesthetic purposes, Muto products will ensure some privacy in any dynamic work environment. Through great design, our products follow the ultimate interior design trends – large open spaces – fostering creative collaboration while creating sub-optimal acoustic environments. Desk dividers, free-standing screens, wall or hanging acoustic panels will create a balanced and pleasing layout that reduces unwanted noise in all types of interiors.

The development of the Muto collections ensured the most stylish design options while also being simple to install, flexible and eco-friendly.

RIPPLE CORK TILE

Either as decor or a push-pin bulletin board surface, Ripple Cork Tiles enables you to customize surfaces according to your preference. In addition to cork being an ecological material, it has natural sound absorption and thermal properties. Because the texture is repeated, the material is easy to cut, and the color pallet is coordinated, so you can get completely creative in your application.
