Original STONELINE® non-stick coating with REAL particles of stone

True to the motto "Experience the best taste", STONELINE® pots and pans are equipped with the world's only non-stick coating with real particles of stone. The coating promises optimal non-stick properties with a robust and scratch-resistant surface at the same time. Depending on preference and customer need, the addition of fat and oil during frying can be dispensed with.

STONELINE® means healthy cooking with the best and inimitable taste at the same time. The solid, non-distorting all-stove base is suitable for all types of cookers, such as induction, glass ceramic, gas and electric.

Modern point of sale?
No problem!

Emotions guaranteed!

Strategically positioned to be visible to customers at all times: Our attractively designed counter displays increase the level of attention, can be set up flexibly and easily and, when closed, are the ideal place to store the products they contain.

Selling 2.0:

You want to make shopping in the consumer market even more attractive? No problem!

To promote sales in the stationary shop, we develop concepts to create a shopping experience. We generate emotional purchase incentives, for example by setting up QR code readers or tablets with touchscreen functions. This way, information material about the product is visualised to the buyer in the shortest possible time. We can even put ultra-modern beacon technologies into practice by integrating the shoppers' smartphones.
