PILLIVUYT TOILE DE JOUY

Les Quatre parties du monde.
THE FOUR PARTS OF THE WORLD

Imagine yourself transported to a time when the world was vast, and every corner of the planet was steeped in mystery and wonder.

Dive into the rich and captivating history of our brand-new Pillivuyt collection, an exceptional collaboration with the Toile de Jouy Museum, showcasing the iconic pattern, «Les Quatre parties du monde.», Inv. No. 986.13.7, created by the virtuoso Jean-Baptiste Huet in 1790.

Each piece in this collection will bring to the table a bygone era where exploration and discovery were at the heart of the collective imagination, turning your dining experience into an artistic adventure.

Each piece in this collection embodies the unique fusion between the captivating history of Cesare Ripa's Iconology and the artistic ingenuity of Huet, revealing the Curopean, African, American, and Asian

Our plates, cups, and dishes transform into living canvases, capturing the spirit of Europe, symbolized by a crowned woman, and the exoticism of distant lands, populated by a fascinating bestiary derived from Huet's meticulous observation at the Royal Garden of Plants.

COLLECTION LES QUATRE PARTIES DU MONDE

THE FOUR PARTS OF THE WORLD

Discover this iconic masterpiece, an 18th-century treasure elevated by our PILLIVUYT porcelain.

In an artistic banquet where art and conviviality merge.

Each piece in the collection unveils a captivating allegorical scene: Europe, embodied by a crowned woman, a symbol of wealth and authority; Asia, steeped in rituals and exoticism; Africa, vibrant with fauna and culture; and America, portraying a scene that reflects the exotic nature and diversity of this continent.

These representations, present on every piece of this unique collection, are true windows into the 18th century.

An ode to French artisanal heritage, this collection, a reflection of our porcelain craftsmanship, celebrates the very essence of our legacy. Like the Toile de Jouy, this cotton masterpiece printed on a copper plate is a precious relic from France's rich past.

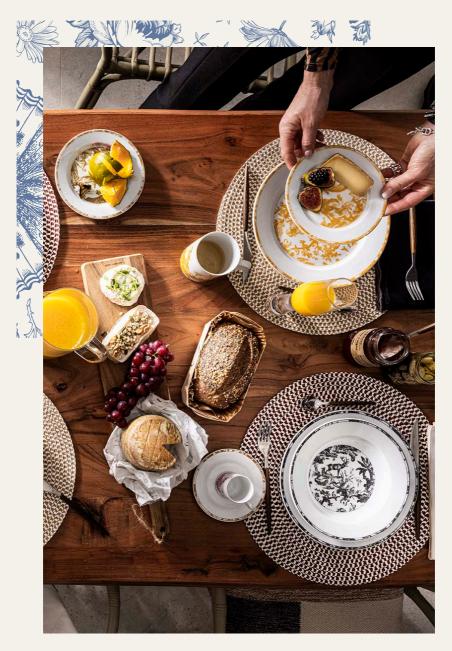

A symphony of cofors.

Immerse yourself in the unparalleled elegance of our Pillivuyt collection, a symphony of colors and shapes designed to awaken your senses with every meal. Each exquisite set unveils a palette of captivating hues, transforming every plate into a vibrant canvas.

To hold this collection in your hands is to immerse yourself in a world where timeless aesthetics meets modern utility—an invitation to celebrate each dinner as a piece of art in its own right.

An artistic legacy at the table!
