

Introducing the Diplomat

VIPER

This new range features a fully engraved body, with intricate patterns reminiscent of a reptile's scaled skin, giving it a distinct and captivating look.

The pen's streamlined form is complemented by a precisely engineered nib, designed to offer a smooth and effortless writing experience.

Though premium, the DIPLOMAT VIPER is designed to offer exceptional value for a controlled budget, making it accessible to both pen enthusiasts and professionals seeking a high-quality pen.
