

COMPANY PROFILE

Peruvian global sourcing

18 years working for the future and empowerment of Peruvian Andes artisans.

ABOUT US

"Sumaq Qara", a word in Quechua language that means "Beautiful Leather", was the inspiration of the founders, Mr. and Mrs. Torres to create beautiful crafts. As a result and to continue the family legacy as well as the commitment to support women who had been victims of sexual and psychological abuse in the highlands of Peru, the daughters of the founders, Roxana, Elile and Yuli became business partners. Hence, since 2006, Sumaq Qara has been working on promoting Peruvian crafts while giving work to the artisans.

The company has a workshop in Ayacucho which is one of the most ancient and prominent colonial cities of Peru, known as the "Capital City of Folk Art and Peruvian Craftsmanship". Ayacucho is recognized for its different types of crafts, including retablo, tapestry, Huamanga stone carving, pottery, textiles and embroidery.

OUR MISSION

As a Peruvian company, we are dedicated to produce and commercialize handmade, unique, eco-friendly and high quality textile crafts for the international market, committed to promoting good practices of fair trade and care for the environment in our community.

OUR TEAM

Sumaq Qara is being working around 18 years with Artisans from Ayacucho, bringing opportunities and a fair wage. Giving constantly training in which the artisans can merge traditional techniques from Ayacucho with modern trends.

Each group of artisans have a leader, who work directly with us supervising the people from the communities. Leaders are in charge of gathering the artisans and give them the necessary instructions for production.

We work with approximately 500 artisans who are divided in 17 communities.
