Bunzlau Castle x Van Gogh Museum

Vincent van Gogh's works are second to none. His art gives people worldwide comfort and inspiration. The collection developed by the Van Gogh Museum and Bunzlau Castle pays tribute to this thinking. Van Gogh's paintings are not copied one-to-one into the ceramics and textiles, but were the inspiration for unique, yet recognisable, settings. The Bunzlau Castle x Van Gogh Museum ceramic collection consists of six decors and the textile series features kitchen and tea towels in two different designs.
