OUR CORE VALUES

Empower local society

Our effort to actively engages in initiatives and practices designed to uplift and support the local society through partnership, providing resources and mentorship with local crafter to help them thrive. We respect and prioritize to preserve local culture, traditional technique and incorporate this understanding to create long term sustainable business practices that benefits everyone. With a focus on innovation, authenticity and cultural richness, each piece is a testament to the artistry embedded in our culture.

Act as an essential link between global market & local economy

Indonesia is an archipelago country consists of thousands of islands, each with its own geographical, cultural, and economic characteristics which come with an impact on imbalance distribution in economy, education, and infrastructure. Major urban centres attract a significant portion of economic activities, investments, and skilled labour, leaving rural regions with fewer opportunities for growth. Our role is to create opportunities for local crafters who lives in rural regions through fostering connection with global market and showcase the exceptional handwoven products to global market. Through this, we bring business to our crafter's door and cultivating local economy to go beyond boundaries.

Eco friendly goods

Indonesia, as a tropical paradise, possesses a wealth of natural resources and through the exquisite handweaving work of our local crafters, our products are not only unique but also have the potential to captivate the global market. We are in the sustainable journey and we aim to keep offerings eco-friendly goods made of natural resources while continuously improving toward sustainable business practices.
