Adding Value to Living and Creating a Home That Brings Warmth — gudee

2024 — COLLECTION

Pressure is an integral part of our daily lives, spanning from overwhelming professional stress to common inconveniences that can result in psychological and physical problems. Finding effective ways to manage stress is crucial. Exposure to the natural environment not only makes you feel better but also contributes to your physical well-being. Gudee offers opportunities to easily alleviate burdens by integrating natural material goods into your home, establishing a stronger connection to nature. The warm tactile impression of rounded corner design, coupled with the interaction with bamboo-made products, creates moments of calm and tranquility.

In Gudee's 2024 collection, the VASIN single flower vase offers stylish and enjoyable ways to showcase flowers. The classic Gudee series, RAN bamboo hook, introduces a brand-new way to attach to the wall. The ROCA bath/bar cart, available in two different shapes, is perfect for use in the living room, home office, and bathroom. The combination of brown bamboo with beige fabric gives the UROKI pen pouch, ESOBI tissue box, and ORSON series a fresh appearance. These pieces are not just about aesthetics; they are designed to bring a warm and comforting experience to your daily life.

Gudee aspires to deliver products of the utmost quality while ensuring affordability. The brand remains committed to pushing the boundaries of innovation. "Adding value to living and creating a home that brings warmth" is Gudee's guiding principle. Its products are not only functional but also seamlessly infuse natural warmth into living spaces. By using eco-friendly bamboo, Gudee actively contributes to waste reduction, aligning with its commitment to sustainability and corporate social responsibility. We invite you to explore our designs further in the following pages.
