Accessories and complements for the bathroom

The new is based on an ancient culture

COMPANY

Capannoli has been producing bathroom accessories and complements since 1946. Founded in the heart of the medieval city of Siena, the company has an extensive distribution network throughout Italy and exports to over 40 countries worldwide, maintaining the values of reliability and quality for which it has always been recognized.

In addition to 22 collections available in 32 different finishes, the range is enriched by mirrors (round and rectangular, customizable in size and lighting solutions), rugs (made in Italy, entirely from high-quality cotton, customizable in colors, designs, and shapes), and completed by lines of stools, shower grids, hotel accessories, and items for the disabled.

From 1946 to today

Artisanal tradition, industrial excellence

THE HISTORY

The history of Capannoli began in the 1940s with a craftsman working brass in the heart of Siena. Erreno Capannoli's workshop gave rise to a company that, over the years, transformed into a solid industrial entity. Today, Capannoli is known for producing bathroom accessories and complements, maintaining in its DNA a dedication to artisanal quality and reliability.

A story made of details

Because details make the difference

1946

Erreno Capannoli opens the first workshop in Siena in the Contrada del Bruco.

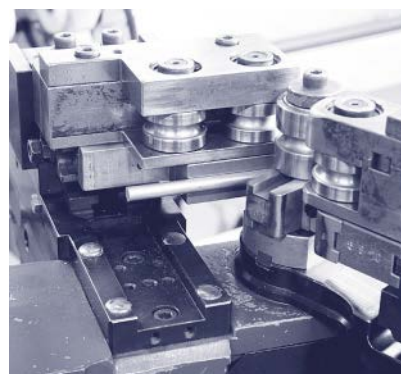

1960

The Capannoli company begins the production of bathroom accessories.

With Gianfranco, Erreno's son, the industrial plant is established in Arbia, just a few kilometers from Siena.

1970

The creativity of the past and the innovation of new generations merge into new expressions in forms and materials.

2000

1990

Collaboration with external designers begins, selected first by Gianfranco and later by his son Andrea.

2023

The company, led by Andrea and Lorenzo Capannoli, enters a phase of renewal characterized by a new image and an increasing focus on design as the core of the production process.
