

Roberto Nuti Group

SABO Shock Absorbers: The SABO product line incorporates over a thousand shock absorbers codes which are intended for the heavy-duty transport field and also includes shock absorbers for truck's cabs, trailer's axles, buses, railways, agricultural applications and custom/special vehicles.

We guarantee two years of warranty from the production date.

SABO Air Springs: Sabo air springs are projected and manufactured in our plant in Turkey, and they are distributed worldwide. Our range of air springs covers OEM applications (not only European ones) for trucks, buses, cabin, trailers and semi-trailers. We guarantee three years of warranty from the production date.

MEI Calipers: Roberto Nuti Group is the exclusive distributor in Italy of the industrial vehicle brake calipers produced by MEI, a long-standing UK leader in the industry with over fifty years of experience. These high-quality calipers are certified TS16949 with two years of warranty.

MEI/QAS Slack Adjuster: Roberto Nuti Group is the official and exclusive distributor of MEI/QAS slack adjusters in the Italian market. The automatic regulation system of the MEI/QAS slack adjusters (ASA) design is the most popular and the most widely used. Its applications are compatible with most European trailers, trucks and buses. It is interchangeable with the majority of ASA's currently in service and it can be used on all applications with S-cam brakes with the right matching configuration.

PILOT Seats: Roberto Nuti Group is the exclusive distributor of PILOT seats in Italy. PILOT currently produces a wide range of seats for commercial vehicles, buses and construction equipment. Thanks to its flexibility and capability, PILOT can easily offer and quickly produce alternatives seats' models following the customer's requirements.

AYD Tie-rod: AYD, founded in 1975 in Turkey, is a world leader within the sector of steering parts. It develops 1.750 new codes annually and it produces more than 4.2 million parts monthly. All AYD products are designed, manufactured and tested to perform to the highest level.

AYD commercial vehicle parts are distributed exclusively in Italy by the Roberto Nuti Group.

Roberto Nuti Group was founded by Mr. Roberto Nuti in 1962 in Bologna (Italy). At the very beginning it was a small company distributing spare parts for trucks.

Today, the RNB Group produces and distributes the SABO branded shock absorbers and air springs in more than 80 countries in the aftermarket of commercial and industrial vehicles. SABO products are designed in Italy, while they are developed in our three production plants meeting high quality standards and equipped with advanced technology. In the last few years, we widened our range of products with shock absorbers designed for the first plants, special vehicles, agricultural vehicles, and different industrial applications, such as industrial washing machines or packaging machinery.

In 2020 Roberto Nuti Group gained the certification to produce and distribute SABO shock absorbers in the railways sector as well, and it is constantly busy to satisfy the customer's needs following these distinctive assets: a wide and up-to-date range of products, the quickest delivery and the best quality-price ratio.
