

Vibracoustic
Aftermarket

Our Air Springs Portfolio for Commercial Vehicles:

Original and Strong Quality from a Single Source.

Vibracoustic Aftermarket offers a comprehensive Air Springs portfolio for Commercial Vehicles under our two brands, Vibracoustic and blacktech. No matter which vehicle, application, vehicle age or mileage: you get the right Air Spring from a single source. We are continuously adjusting and expanding our Aftermarket portfolio to meet your needs.

Our Aftermarket portfolio benefits from the Group's innovation power and from more than 60 years of global experience in engineering and manufacturing original equipment components. Our original and strong quality Air Springs for Commercial Vehicles offer easy assembly, reduced maintenance costs and high durability. Vibracoustic Aftermarket is your partner to turn to with original and strong quality Air Springs for Commercial Vehicles. Discover which of our two brands suits your commercial vehicle best:

Original Quality Air Springs

Strong Quality Air Springs

Vibracoustic solutions meet the highest quality criteria. Our original quality Air Springs are developed and engineered in close collaboration with original manufacturers to meet customer performance. Our Aftermarket products fulfill original performance and are produced in OE quality.

- Innovative and broad market coverage portfolio in OE quality for international vehicle brands
- Advanced engineering
- Material expertise serving high-end customer requirements
- Product quality achieves / ensure maximum load capacity requirements
- Rubber quality ensures best resistance to temperature and ozone exposure and leads to an OE defined product lifetime
- Comprehensive testing methods and equipment ensures OE quality requirements for durable products and long-lasting vehicle performance

blacktech is an Aftermarket brand of Vibracoustic. blacktech's strength is to scale OEM specifications to Aftermarket requirements to offer a market-leading and strong quality Air Spring portfolio securing the performance also for increased vehicle age and mileage.

- Comprehensive Aftermarket product portfolio covering more than 80 percent of global Air Springs applications of the major Commercial Vehicle manufacturers
- Reverse engineering with scaled Aftermarket solutions
- First-to-market product applications
- blacktech's strong quality – performing on high load capacity requirements
- Strong rubber quality ensuring high resistance to temperature and ozone exposure resulting in best cost-mileage-ratio
- Unique in-house testing facilities securing strong quality products

As your dedicated Aftermarket partner for Commercial Vehicle Air Springs, our global sales team is close to you wherever you need us.

info@vibracoustic-cvas.com | www.vibracoustic-aftermarket.com | www.blacktech-airsprings.com