

KAPOOR AUTOMOBILE (INDIA)

MANUFACTURERS & EXPORTERS OF
AUTOMOTIVE RUBBER COMPONENTS

ABOUT US

We, Kapoor Automobiles (India) based in Mumbai and founded in 1965 are one of the leading manufacturers and exporters of aftermarket automotive rubber components. The company manufactures automotive rubber parts like engine and gear box mounts, spring cushions, torque rods, propeller (center) bearing mounts, silent bloc and suspension bushes for both passenger cars as well as trucks and trailers.

Our products fit Japanese and European passenger cars and trucks and trailers. We have almost 1300 different rubber products for these vehicles and export them to USA, UK, Turkey, France, Africa and the Middle East.

We started our manufacturing activities in 1989 and since then we have provided our customers with high quality, guaranteed and reliable products. All the manufacturing activities are done under one roof and we do not outsource anything but the raw materials. We are an ISO 9001-2008 certified company and are a hundred percent export oriented company.

Customer satisfaction is most important to us and our team of dedicated staff provides good quality of OEM standards and on-time delivery.

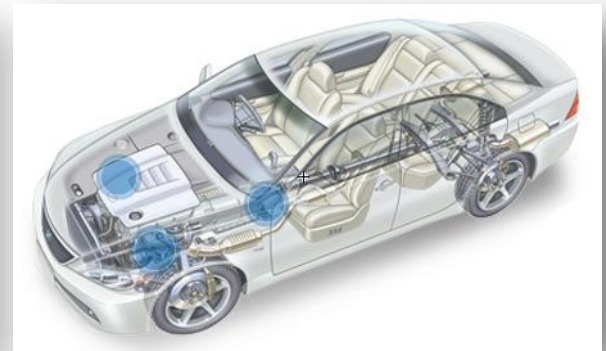

We have a broad coverage of European and Japanese applications. We also manufacture rubber parts for custom applications based on samples and drawings.
