LED CANDLES

- we have one of the widest and most affordable ranges of high quality LED candles on the market.

Battery-powered candles are a growing trend that has become more popular than ever. Many have discovered the advantages over traditional candles. These candles provide the same cosy glow as regular candles, but without the fire risk which makes them perfect for homes with children or pets. It also makes them easy to place anywhere in the home, even unattended. Do not place the candles in direct sunlight as this might affect their appearance.

Our range is wide and includes candles in different colours and with different functions. Most have a timer function and can be switched on and off automatically. We offer everything from small tea lights for indoor use to large block candles for outdoor use, with and without timer and some with a light sensor. We strive to constantly improve our products, and now many of our antique candles have a silicone base to stand more stable in the candlesticks.

Whatever candle you're looking for, we think you'll find it in our range!
