

DESIGNED IN ITALY

Since 1962, SABO spare parts contribute to enhancing the overall performance, safety, comfort and longevity of heavy-duty vehicles, leading to fewer breakdowns, less downtime, and lower maintenance costs. That is why we invest in design and materials research in our Italian laboratories and carefully select our partners.

SABO shock absorbers and air springs are distributed in more than 80 countries worldwide and manufactured in our three factories meeting high quality standards and equipped with advanced technology.

In the last few years, we widened our range of products with applications for railway, custom vehicles, agricultural machinery and industrial applications.
