

Kent Automatic Fire Curtain

The Kent Automatic Fire Curtain is a standard rolling-type curtain designed to provide up to 3 hours of fire resistance. Crafted with high-performance fibreglass fabric, it is housed within a compact head box installed above the ceiling, remaining invisible until activated upon fire alarm. Its gravity fail-safe mechanism ensures prompt deployment upon fire alarm activation, guaranteeing swift and effective fire separation.

Request For Quotation

Features

- Utilization of High-Performance Fire-Resistant Fabrics
- Rigorous Testing to BS EN and UL standards
- Third-party accreditation by Certifire
- Oversize Certification
- Radiation Protection
- Tested in Single and Multiple Roller Orientations

Compliances

- Fire Resistance: BS EN 1634-1:2014
- Smoke Control Test: BS EN 1634-3:2014
- Fabric Testing: BS 476 Pt 6 & Pt 7, Class 0
- Impact Test: BS 5234-2:1992, BS 8524-1:2013
- Tested to UL 10D & UL 1784
- BS EN 13501-1:2007+A1:2009