Kitchen Textiles

“The value of things isn’t the time they last, but the intensity with which they occur. That is why there are unforgettable moments and unique people.”

Fernando Pessoa

1947

Created by Narciso Pereira Mendes, FATEBA began manufacturing Home Textiles in 1947. Today, FATEBA is an expert in Home Textile production that invokes tradition and equates Portuguese textile heritage with high quality products and exclusive, modern and personalized designs.
