Val do Sol, a giant ceramic atelier...

Our stoneware products are inspired in nature shapes, colors and textures.

All glaze formulas are created from scratch in Val do Sol. Some glazes are the result of intense research, some are obtained by artists cooperation, others are experimental.

We use non processed raw materials to achieve a more natural look.

In our development process we search for the right balance between the shapes and the glazes. Our goal is to create collections with an intense look that tell us a story.

We love ceramics.
