

TOTAL JUGGLING SRL

The Company

Founded in 2008 and based in Venice, Total Juggling has its core business in distributing its registered trademarks i-Total® and iDrink® in more than 40 countries.

With its strong commitment to keeping up-to-date with the market trends, Total Juggling designs all its products and the related packaging in Italy, and produces them consciously in China.

i-total® and iDrink® include a wide range of products ranging from stationery items, to gadgets and gifts and products for home and decoration. Special attention is paid to sustainability and the impact on the environment.

About us

Through a steady-growing sales network in Europe and in several Countries outside the EU borders, Total Juggling addresses its wide selection of products to stationery shops, book stores, gift shops, home & decor and concept stores.

Total Juggling also participates in the most important field exhibitions in Europe and Worldwide, to expand and consolidate its network and to offer to its customers and to new prospect partners the opportunity to see the latest market trends and choose the most suitable products for their stores. Total Juggling pays special attention to quality and usability, and at the same time strives to maintain an attentive and professional service for its customers.

The routine is colored with originality

i-Total® wants to establish itself as a reference brand in the sector of stationery, gadget and gift items. With its unique, irreverent and recognizable style and through useful, refined and original products, i-Total® aims at bringing joy to those who receive its objects as a gift

iDrink® was born from the research to create useful and functional products with a lower environmental impact. iDrink® items are in this sense conceived as affordable, desirable and long-lasting products able to help people to pollute less.

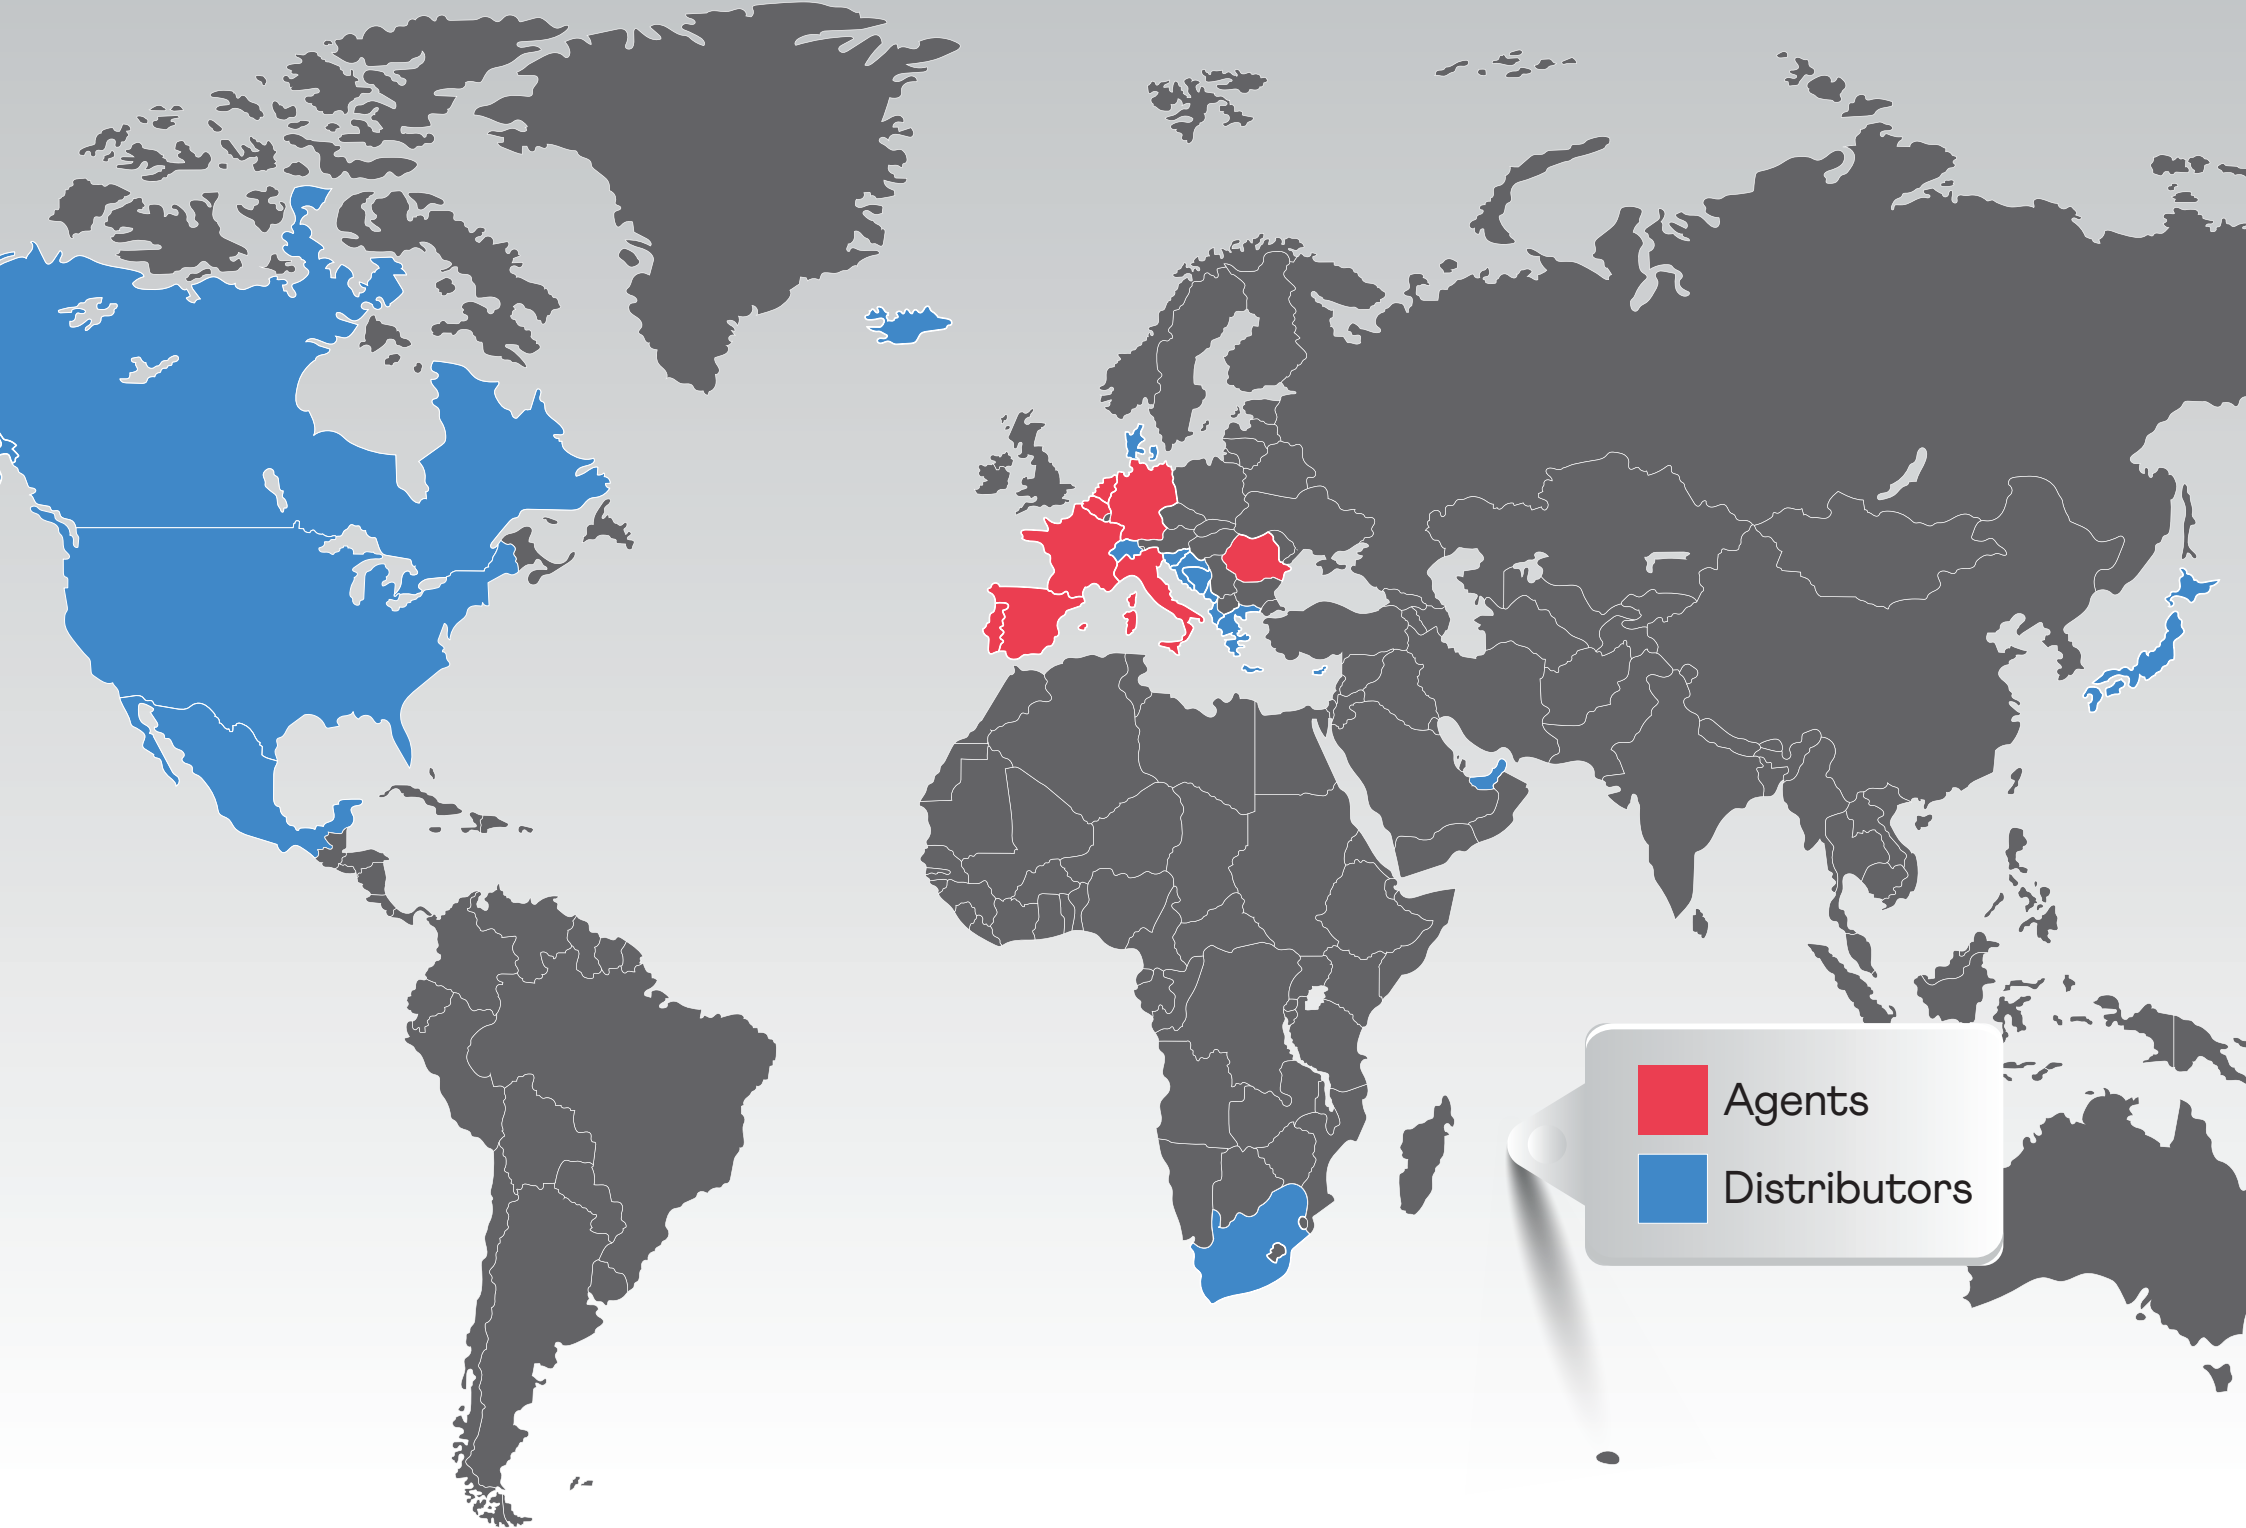

b-evo is the BOTTLE-EVOLUTION, the evolution of the bottle that will change people's lifestyle with every sip. The experience in the market that Total Juggling has been able to gather over the years gives shape to a product with features that turn a simple object into a one-of-a-kind patented design. In 2022, the offer is enriched with some brand-new products giving birth to the On the Go Lunch range. The items belonging to the set are the Lunch Box, the Cutlery Set and the Lunch Bag and they represent the perfect accessories for b-evo water bottle. A complete line of products featuring a unique style that sets them apart.

Sales Network

The background of the slide features a network diagram. It consists of several colored spheres (blue, yellow, red) and orange location pin icons. These are interconnected by thin, colored lines (blue, yellow, red) that crisscross the white background, creating a sense of global connectivity and a complex web of relationships.

Total Juggling business model is projected into the future through the development and the internationalization of its Brands and related Catalogues. Thanks to a passionate international sales network including Sales Agents and Distributors, the company keeps on growing, thus confirming its objective to consolidate its historic markets and to expand its sales in new geographical and business areas.

Commercial initiatives and Fairs

Total Juggling communicates its ideas in the best possible way also through its presence in various trade fairs in Italy and abroad. The importance of contacting people and the interaction between customers and their products are an important component for the foundation of their relationships.

Every year the company evolves and distinguishes itself from others by exciting and stimulating its customers, always trying its best to leave a lasting and wonderful impression.
