Embroidering a Lifetime of Opportunities

Inherited
traditional art from our ancestors

Andean treasures

COLLECTION

Inspired by the inherit our ancestors gave us.

A traditional art embodied in the textiles we created with passion and dedication. This collection's main characteristics are the colorful patterns that we are using to show our Peruvian ancestors' legacy through the textiles.

Sumaq Qara, words in Quechua language that mean Beautiful Leather. Works with around 500 artisans who are divided in 17 groups of different communities who have a leader, each leader works directly with us and they are in charge of supervising other people's work from each community. Leaders are in charge of gathering the artisans and give them the necessary instructions for the making process so we can get beautiful products.
